Personnel changes in Swisscom management

After nearly ten successful years, Stefan Nünlist, Head of Corporate Communications and, since 2001, member of the Swisscom Group Executive Board, is leaving the company next year to apply the experience he gained at Swisscom at SBB.

Stefan Nünlist has been Head of Swisscom Corporate Communications since 2001 and a member of both the Group Executive Board and the Management Board of Swisscom Switzerland since 2008. In this role, Stefan Nünlist has continuously adapted and updated both corporate communications and Swisscom's corporate image to meet ever-changing challenges. His responsibilities have included internal and external corporate communications, market launches, social responsibility and sponsorship commitments with Swiss Ski within the scope of a partnership established under his leadership. In his role as Head of Public Affairs he has played a major part in safeguarding Swisscom's interests in the areas of politics and government.

The Swisscom Board of Directors and Group Executive Board would like to thank Stefan Nünlist for his outstanding, successful contribution to the company and wish him nothing but the best for the future, both personally and professionally.
