

Curriculum Vitae

Anna Mossberg

Member

Member of the Board of Directors since 2018

Born 1972

Swedish citizen

MBA, Stanford Business School

Executive MBA, IE University, Madrid

MSc, Technical University Lulea

Anna Mossberg has been a member of the Swisscom Board of Directors since 2018. She has a Master of Science, Industrial Engineering & Management from Lulea University of Technology and completed a management programme in Executive Management for Growing Companies at Stanford Business School Palo Alto. Her professional career began in 1996 at the Swedish telecommunications company Telia. She has held a number of management positions in different countries and has sat on a number of board committees. In 2010, she became CEO of Internet provider Bahnhof, in 2011 Senior Advisor at Stanley Securities and, in 2012, Senior Vice President Strategy at Deutsche Telekom. From 2015 to 2018, she was a member of the Google management team in Sweden. From March 2021 to February 2022 Anna Mossberg has been Managing Director of Silo AI Sweden. She is a member of the Swedbank AB board of directors in Stockholm, the Volvo Car AB in Gothenburg, the Marshall Group in Stockholm and the Ringier AG in Zofingen.

Career

- 1996–2010 Positions including Vice President and Head of Business & Product Management, Head of Internet, Consumer Segment and Director Data Services, Product & Services at Telia
- 2010 CEO, Bahnhof AB
- 2011 Senior Advisor, Stanley Securities AB
- 2012–2014 Senior Vice President Strategy and Portfolio Management, Deutsche Telekom
- 2015–2018 member of the management team of Google Ltd, Sweden
- 2021–February 2022 Managing Director of Silo AI Sweden, Stockholm