

30 September 2022

Swisscom Factsheet

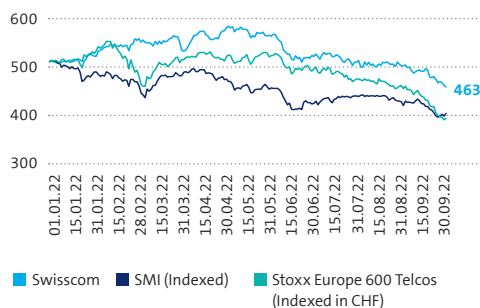

Swisscom is Switzerland's leading telecom provider and one of its foremost IT companies, headquartered in Ittigen, close to the capital city, Bern. Its subsidiary Fastweb has built up a strong position on the Italian market. Swisscom brooks no compromise when it comes to serving customer needs; it focuses on service and quality and invests massively in the networks of the future.

Revenue -1.4% compared to previous year
1 January to 30 September 2022

8.2 billion CHF

EBITDA -3.6% compared to previous year
1 January to 30 September 2022

3.3 billion CHF

Shares

Swisscom shares are listed (SCMN.VX CH0008742519) on the Swiss Stock Exchange and are also traded by the Bank of New York in the USA. A total of 51,801,943 registered shares at a face value of CHF 1.– are held by around 72,000 shareholders. 51% of shares are held by the Swiss Confederation. A dividend of CHF 22 per share was paid in 2022. Market capitalisation on the balance sheet date of 30 September 2022 amounted to CHF 24,010 million.

Key Figures

	1.1 - 30.9.2022	2021	Change*
Net revenue in millions CHF	8,225	11,183	-1,4%
EBITDA in millions CHF	3,341	4,478	-3,6%
Investment in millions CHF	1,601	2,286	-0,2%
Broadband connections in Switzerland in thousands	2,027	2,037	-0,1%
Broadband connections in Italy in thousands	2,696	2,750	-2,6%
TV connections in Switzerland in thousands	1,576	1,592	-0,6%
Mobile telephony connections in Switzerland in thousands	6,166	6,177	-0,4%
Mobile telephony connections in Italy in thousands	2,937	2,472	26,8%
No. of full-time personnel	19,033	18,905	-0,7%

*compared to 1.1. – 30.9.2021